HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 900
By West

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Ms. Jeniffer Foxx and Colonel Jason Hawkins, founders of Airplay International Music.

WHEREAS, Col. Jason Hawkins and Ms. Jeniffer Foxx established Airplay International Music Trade Publication and Artist Development Organization in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee on January 2, 1997; and

WHEREAS, since that time, Airplay International has grown and expanded its direction to include all fields of music, to represent talented individuals who entertain and perform music in a professional manner, and to aid and assist artists, entertainers and songwriters in choosing the proper direction in seeking success; and

WHEREAS, Airplay International, under the exemplary leadership of Col. Jason Hawkins and Ms. Jeniffer Foxx, has developed an extensive radio/television and media network that is dedicated to benefiting the independent music industry by reporting airtime and product sales directly to the Airplay International Music Charting System; and

WHEREAS, because of their network interest and involvement in the field of independent music worldwide, the Airplay International, King Eagle Music Awards and homecoming event was founded in 1993, and within a growth span of six years has officially become recognized as the largest independent music event in the history of the great state of
